ABOUT KAREN

Karen is a dynamic and passionate keynote speaker with over a decade of on-stage experience. Renowned for her expertise in empowering CEOs to navigate the critical path toward driving growth and fostering strategic alignment for enduring success.

Drawing from a rich background of experiences across various industries such as Technology, Healthcare, Government Contracting, and collaboration with institutions like the Air Force and NASA, Karen brings a unique perspective to the forefront. Her expertise lies in strategic planning, organizational alignment, and championing an unparalleled customer experience.

“KP Strategies Sustainable, Predictable Growth CEO workshops brought critical best practices, thought leadership and tools that are important for new CEOs and an important reminder for the tenured CEO. For both, the workshops were vital for leaders to focus on what only they, as CEO, can do.”
